

Liturgy Alive of Feria

Opening Prayer

God with the heart of a father and a mother, you care for the poor,
give justice to the oppressed and food for the hungry.
In your Son Jesus, you have shown us not to give only from our surplus but ourselves.
Confound our calculations and change our self-interest into generous sharing, that our way of giving may be like yours,
by not counting the cost.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading Introduction

Paul, or the author using Paul's name, beseeches Timothy to keep preaching the word of God, in season and out of season, to be a good minister of the Lord and to give himself, as Paul had done.

Gospel Introduction

Jesus, who lived in the hands of the Father, points out to his disciples how much a poor widow was living in the hands of God, so much so that she put in the treasury for the worship in the temple, coins she even needed for her own living. What a trust and generosity!

General Intercessions

— Lord, we pray you for your Church. Preserve it from the temptation of riches and power, we pray:

— Lord, we pray you for widows and orphans. Keep them from despair and make us attentive to their need of compassion and loving help, we pray:

— Lord, we pray you for this community. Make us generous enough to share not only from our abundance, but also at times from our poverty, we pray:

Prayer over the Gifts

Loving, generous God, in these signs of bread and wine, we celebrate how Jesus, your Son, gave himself once and for all that we might live and love and be free.
May we learn from him to ask not how much we can afford without hurting ourselves but to let him be our strength to give the best of ourselves and to answer his voice crying out in everyone in need.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord.

Prayer after Communion

Generous and loving God, your Son came to fill with your gifts the poor aware of their emptiness and he called them blessed.
Help us to discover how poor we really are—poor in faith, in trust, in generous love.
Be near to us in your Son, that we may become available to all and share the best that is in us without any outward display but in quiet deeds of love and service, as Jesus did, your Son, who lives with you and with us for ever.

Blessing

Jesus gave all that he had and was—his whole self, to bring others life and happiness. Like him, let us not count the cost of our gifts. May Almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
