

Liturgy Alive of Feast of Saint James, Apostle

Introduction

James became a disciple of Jesus together with his brother John. He was, with Peter and John, among the apostles closest to Jesus, witnessing the resurrection of Jairus' daughter, the Lord's transfiguration and agony.

A "son of thunder" in his zeal for the kingdom, he proposed a hard line against those who did not accept the gospel. But Jesus told him that his task was not to destroy but to save. James himself experienced the consequences of the hard line when he died a martyr's death, thus sharing Jesus' cup of sacrifice as the Lord had foretold him.

Opening Prayer

Lord our God,

Your Son Jesus was your equal and yet he made himself our brother and servant.
May his Spirit be alive in us, as he was alive in St. James, and dispose us to become, like your Son, powerless and vulnerable so that we can serve one another, especially in the weakest of our brothers and sisters.
In this way may people experience how bold you make our love.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Liturgy of the Word

General Intercessions

- That the basic attitude of our Christian leaders, bishops, priests, lay ministers, may be a spirit of service to their people, we pray:
 - That those who are persecuted may never despair but keep trusting in the Lord, we pray:
- That no difficulties may keep our missionaries from preaching the Lord, we pray:

Prayer over the Gifts

Lord our God,

your Son asks us to drink with him the cup of self-sacrificing service.
Let Jesus fill us with that love which alone can understand that to be great is to serve others and to use up our lives to give them a chance to live

May we seek no other reward than to share the destiny of Jesus, our Lord and Savior for ever.

Prayer after Communion

Lord our God,

your Son Jesus Christ gave his life for his friends and lighted in them a fire that cannot be extinguished.
Strengthened by the bread of Life may we follow St. James, your apostle and martyr,
in his total and lasting dedication to the kingdom of your Son,

Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Blessing

Our attitude in life is too much that we want to be served. It's easy and pleasant. Jesus tells us that we have to learn how to serve. That is what will bring us true happiness. May almighty God give us that attitude and bless us, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
