

Liturgy Alive of Feria

Introduction

The promise made by the Lord was finally fulfilled with the birth of Jesus... God would set his people free by no less than his own Son. Was the promise finally fulfilled? It was the beginning of the fulfillment. Everything was there to make it real and effective, except the people who would have to put it into practice. For God created us free, and that means he relies on us, on our acceptance and cooperation, on our love. We have to let God make his peace and love come true among us. With and through Jesus. That's why he came among us as one of us. Here I am, human like you. Look at me and see how it is to be done. Do it with me. I am with you and stay with you to give you the strength. Come, let's begin. Now.

Opening Prayer

Lord, loving and mighty God, you fulfilled your promise to save us when Jesus, your Son, became one of us.
We are no longer in the dark, for you let your light shine on us.
Bring us your salvation now, set us really free from our sins, let us become fully human with Jesus and go with him in your way of peace and love.
Let him be our strength, our constant companion on the road, that through him and growing in his humanity, we may be your beloved sons and daughters.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

General Intercessions

– For people who are hard and demanding, that God may make us sensitive to others and compassionate, we pray:

– For those who feel especially these days how lonely and fearful they are, that their brothers and sisters in the Lord may bring them support and warmth, we pray:

– For people who feel how empty their lives are, that they may find the Lord and learn from him how love and service can enrich them, we pray:

Prayer over the Gifts

Lord God, our Father,

we join Jesus your Son in his feast meal of the bread and wine of himself, that we may become more and more like him and live the way he lived.
Let a new era begin now; let this food and drink make us free to create peace among people, to bring justice and love to our world, and to walk together on the way to your home of joy without end.

We ask this in the name of Jesus the Lord.

Prayer after Communion

God, our merciful Father, we have heard the Good News of your Son and we ask you to fulfill it in us today.

Do not allow us to be still afraid of committing ourselves to your dream of a new heaven and a new earth.
Let the Spirit of Jesus be alive in us, that everywhere there may be light instead of the dark, justice where there is discrimination and inhumanity, love where there is hatred.
Let your Son live and stay with us, now and till we safely reach your home, for Jesus is our Lord for ever. Amen.

Blessing

Blessed be the Lord our God who shows us his mercy and takes us up into his covenant of love. All praise to him. You, and all who are dear to you, receive the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
