

Liturgy Alive of Friday of the 6th Week of Easter

Introduction

Jesus was going to pass through his passion and death on the way to the joy of his resurrection. In him a new risen and glorious life would be born from his sufferings. The disciples would have to pass through the pains of separation from Jesus, and so there came the uncertainty of their faith as it would be violently tested, to give birth to a renewed faith and a new presence of the Lord. Similarly, the Church has constantly to pass through the childbirth of renewal, to return again and again to Christ and to the heart of his gospel, so as to be more authentically Christ to the world today. Pain is a childbirth, delivery - literally, a liberation - opening the way to new life and joy.

Opening Prayer

Lord God, merciful Father, it is hard for us to accept pain, for we know that you have made us for happiness and joy.
When suffering challenges us with a provocative "why me?" help us to discover the depth of our inner freedom and love and of all the faith and loyalty of which we are capable, together with, and by the power of,

Jesus Christ our Lord.

General Intercessions

- May the Holy Spirit give us peace and serenity in times of pain and trial, for God has made us for joy and happiness, we pray:

- May the Spirit give us the wisdom and strength to let suffering and contradiction help us to grow in the likeness of Christ, we pray:

- May the Spirit keep us anchored in faith and joy when we are groping in the dark of misunderstanding and loneliness, we pray:

Prayer over the Gifts

Lord our God, loving Father, we share in this eucharist in the saving death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Give us your Son as the bread of life, that by the strength of his Spirit we may face pain and suffering without revolt or refusal.
Let it be for us too the liberating pain of birth for new life and fresh joy that will last for ever.

Prayer after Communion

Lord God, loyal Father, you do not ask from us the impossible and we know that you love us.
Help us to accept the realities of life and the demands of loyalty and love with the strength of your Son.
Give us the courage not to refuse the pains of renewal in Christ and in his gospel, that our hearts may be full of joy that can never be taken away.

for your Son is our Lord for ever.

Blessing

We have the assurance of Jesus that if we ask anything from the Father in his name, he will give it. If we had enough faith, we would never doubt or worry. May God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
