

Liturgy Alive of Feria

Opening Prayer

God our Father,
you want your heart to be the measure of our love, but you are always greater than our heart.
In this Eucharist, let your Son give us a heart of flesh in which burns a fire of love that cannot be extinguished, and that prompts us to follow him all the way to you and to all you have entrusted to us.

We ask you this through Christ, our Lord.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading Introduction

As the setting of Tobias is the time of the exile, marriage according to the Jewish law was very important, so as to avoid syncretism through mixed marriage. Hence, the marriage of young Tobias and his bride is presented as a beautiful marriage.

Gospel Introduction

As there were so many rules of the Law to observe, it is easy to understand the desire of scribes to ask which was the key commandment. Twice a day pious Jews professed the "Hear, Israel," with the love of God unique and very important. Jesus attaches to it love of neighbor too, as a total commitment that he will practice on the cross.

General Intercessions

- That the Church for which Christ died may grow into a universal community of love, which makes God's unconditional love visible to all people, we pray:
  - That Christians everywhere may not be people of legalisms and outward observances but people with a heart, who do what they have to do and more because they are God's children, we pray:
  - That our anemic and dried-up love may become rich and spontaneous, like a fresh breath of life and joy, brightening the lives of those around us and a wordless song of praise to God, we pray:

Prayer over the Gifts

Loving God,
in this Eucharist, we celebrate the memory of the sacrifice of Jesus who showed us
the full extent of his love.
Let him make our love as deep and as wide as his,
even if it will upset our settled ways.
May this be the sacrifice we offer you through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Prayer after Communion

God our Father,
to be open to you and to your call,
to enter into the world of people who are wounded by life
by other persons and by us too, to hear their cries and to welcome all,
where will all this lead us?
By the strength of this Eucharist,
help us to encounter our neighbors,
to share their bread, their joys and miseries
and to kindle new hope in their hearts.
May this be our response to your love

through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Blessing

Indeed, to love one's neighbor as oneself often demands sacrifices, and is therefore, worth more than ritual sacrifices. May God inspire such a commitment and bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
