Liturgy Alive of Memorial of St. Barnabas

Introduction

St. Paul owed very much to this missionary, for Barnabas involved Paul in his work among the Christians of Antioch, who were of pagan origin. Acts called Barnabas "a prophet and teacher" and "a good man, filled with the Holy Spirit and with faith." He was an open spirit, convinced that if one had faith it was enough to let one become eligible to be a Christian. Inspired by the Spirit, the leaders of the community of Antioch sent Paul and Barnabas on their missionary mission.

Opening Prayer

prompted by the Holy Spirit, the church of Antioch sent Paul and Barnabas on their missionary mission among pagans. Let your Church everywhere send good, zealous men and women as missionaries. Fill them with the Holy Spirit and with faith, that they may tooch the hearts of people and win them as disciples and friends

Prayer over the Gifts

Lord God,

let the eucharist of Jesus bring the light and life of your Son and his zeal to our communities everywhere to make them missionary by the way they live and to make Christ visible to people.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

God of all people, at the celebration of St. Barnabas we pray:

Make all your missionaries people of the Holy Spirit and of deep faith, that they may speak to the people you send them the words of life and joy of the good news and cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those unclean and cast out evil.

May they do so generously, without charge, for they have received from you without charge.

through Jesus Christ our Lord.
