

Liturgy Alive of Feria

Opening Prayer

God of the ages and of eternity, you have entrusted to us, your people,
your project about people and the world.
Do not allow us to delay your plans by our own limitations.
Make us aware that all we can do is being a leaven, and a sign that the seed you have sown will grow.
Keep us hoping in patience, that integrity, love and justice will come in your own good time
as a gift from you,

through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading Introduction

In the famous chapter 7 of Daniel, a mysterious "Son of Man" (a human being) is announced. Is he an individual or a community? He belongs to both earth and heaven and will inaugurate a kingdom that comes as a gift from God, not as an earthly conquest. Jesus will apply this title to himself and purify it. The empires built on power and godlessness are ridiculed: they are statues with feet of clay, or like monstrous animals. God will judge them, so they will disappear.

General Intercessions

– That we may always look for signs of hope when life is difficult and our faith is tested, we pray:

– That we may always keep trusting the Lord Jesus, that he is with us until the end of time, we pray:

– That we may accept that it is difficult for the kingdom of God to break through and to bring justice and love to all, we pray:

Prayer over the Gifts

God of the promises, to destroy the powers of evil your Son came not as a triumphant king but as the suffering Son of Man.
In this bread and this wine we join our destiny to his.
May we learn from him whose apparent failure led to victory to accept the tensions of our time and the slow growth of your kingdom in patience and hope.
For we know that you keep your promises of unending life and love and happiness

through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Prayer after Communion

Lord, God of hope, you have given us a beautiful dream of your unending reign of love and joy, but we are torn between discouragement and hope because it is beyond our powers.
Thank you for reviving our expectations through the body and blood of your Son.
Help us to grow into new people through our tensions and struggles by the strength of him to whom you have given sovereignty and glory and kingship,

Jesus Christ our Lord.

Blessing

It is sometimes said by non-believers that Christians look up to heaven because they cannot deal with the world. Christ tells us that we have to deal with the world and to change it, to work towards "a new heaven and a new earth." Let us try to do so with the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
