

Liturgy Alive of FEAST of the EPIPHANY of the LORD

FEAST of the EPIPHANY of the LORD

A. Light Revealed to the Nations
B. A Savior for All the World

C. The Guiding Star for All Nations

A. Light Revealed to the Nations

Greeting (See second Reading)

May the star of Jesus our Lord shine on you and on all the nations of the earth.
May you live in his light
and may the Lord Jesus be always with you.

R/ And also with you.

Introduction by the Celebrant

The celebration of Epiphany, meaning "manifestation," is like a second Christmas. It is, in fact, the Christmas of the Eastern Churches. It proclaims that the child Jesus belongs to and is given to the whole world as its Savior. With the magi the world brings to him its variety of gifts: its culture, its many-sidedness, its different identities.

And we here, like people from other nations, bring him the gift of ourselves: our faith, our fidelity, our love, as we meet him in prayer and in people, especially in the poorest.

Penitential Act

One of the offerings we bring to Jesus today is the sorrow for the sins we have committed.
Let us ask him to forgive us.

(PAUSE)

Lord Jesus, you radiate your light
on all the nations of the earth:
All praise to you.

Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.

Jesus Christ, you offer justice and peace
to all willing to accept you:
All praise to you.

Christ, have mercy. R/ Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you will have pity on the weak and save the lives of the poor:
All praise to you.

Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.

Lord, may your judgment on us
be a judgment of mercy and love,
for we recognize our poverty.

Lead us to everlasting life. R/ Amen.

Opening Prayer

B. A Savior for All the World

Greeting (See First Reading)

Arise, people of God, for your light has come,
the glory of the Lord shines on you.
Other peoples come to your light
May the light of the Lord be always with you.

R/ And also with you.

Introduction by the Celebrant

We celebrate today the great feast of Epiphany. Originally it was the Christmas feast of the Eastern part of the Christian Church. In the Western part the stress of Christmas was and is on the birth of Christ as a little human child. In the Eastern part the stress is more on Jesus coming as the Lord and Savior of all. This is the reality the liturgy stresses today: Jesus came to save and bring life to all. No one is excluded, no one is a stranger to him. May all come to know Jesus, alive here among us.

Penitential Act

We do little to bring Jesus to those who do not know him.
We ask the Lord to forgive us.
(PAUSE)
Lord Jesus, light from God, dawn on the whole world,
shine in our hearts and lives:
Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.

Jesus Christ, justice from God, let your integrity and honesty become the share of all people:
Christ, have mercy. R/ Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, peace from God, hear the cries of the poor and the needy and open our ears and hearts to them:
Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.

Forgive us our sins, Lord, and gather us together as your one people.

Lead us to everlasting life. R/ Amen.

Opening Prayer

C. The Guiding Star for All Nations

Greeting

May the star of Jesus our Lord shine on you
and on all the nations of the earth.
May you live in his light
and may the Lord Jesus be always with you.

R/ And also with you.

Introduction by the Celebrant

The celebration of Epiphany, meaning "manifestation," is like a second Christmas. It is, in fact, the Christmas of the Eastern Churches. It proclaims that the child Jesus belongs to and is given to the whole world as its Savior. He is given to us, but with the magi the world brings to him its variety of gifts: its varied cultures, its many-sidedness, its different identities. And we here, like people from other nations, bring him the gift of ourselves: our faith, our fidelity, our love, as we meet him in prayer and in people, especially in the poorest.

Penitential Act

One of the offerings we bring to Jesus today is our sorrow for the sins we have committed.
Let us ask him to forgive us.
(PAUSE)
Lord Jesus, you radiate your light
on all the nations of the earth:
All praise to you!
Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.

Jesus Christ, you offer justice and peace
to all willing to accept you:
All praise to you.
Christ, have mercy. R/ Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, you have pity on the weak
and save the lives of the poor:
All praise to you!
Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.

May your judgment on us
be a judgment of mercy and love,
for we recognize our poverty.

Lead us to everlasting life. R/ Amen.

Opening Prayer

Let us pray to God our Father that Christ may be the light of all
(PAUSE)
God of all nations, peoples and cultures, this is the day you have made bright with your light and your love destined for all.
Guide us in the new ways of your Son.
Let your kindly light shine everywhere, that all peoples may praise you in their own language and enrich your Church with their own gifts.
We ask this in the name of Jesus,

our Lord and Savior for ever. R/ Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading Introduction: Nations will come to your light

In a vision the prophet sees an immense number of peoples flocking from everywhere to God's light.

Second Reading Introduction: All Nations Called In Christ

Jesus Christ came to unite all: all peoples, without any discrimination, are called to join God's people.

Gospel Introduction: We Followed His Star

Those who are familiar with God's promises do not seek him; the powerful fear him. But those who come from afar to seek the Savior, find and recognize him. God accepts all with their own gifts and potentials.

General Intercessions

On this day when peoples from afar came to worship Jesus the Lord, let our prayer be as wide as the world. Let us say to the Father:
R/ Let the light of Christ shine on all people.

- That the light of Christ may shine on all nations far and near and that the Church may welcome them with the diversity of their cultures, let us pray to the Lord: R/ Let the light of Christ shine on all people.
- That in our day justice may flourish and peace come to all of the world, let us pray:
R/ Let the light of Christ shine on all people.

- That God's people may hear the poor when they cry, have pity on the weak and open their hearts and hands to the needy, let us pray: R/ Let the light of Christ shine on all people.

- That those who persecute the Lord in those who try to follow him may see his light and be converted, let us pray: R/ Let the light of Christ shine on all people.

- That all who look for a star to guide them may discover the goodness of the Lord in people full of faith and love, let us pray: R/ Let the light of Christ shine on all people.

- That in our Christian communities we may learn, like the wise men, to share the treasures of our goods and hearts, let us pray: R/ Let the light of Christ shine on all people.

Lord our God, we rejoice that you have become near to us in Jesus your Son.
Let him be the light of life now and for ever.

R/ Amen.

Procession for the Preparation of the Gifts

The procession could stress the theme of the light and the gifts by having not only bread and wine brought forward but also lights and incense, the latter not merely in the usual thurible but in a larger incense burner.

Prayer over the Gifts

God our Father,
we have no gold to offer you but merely the poverty of our hearts and the incense of our praise and thanks.
Fill us with the presence of Jesus, and let him be the light that guides our wavering steps.
And let us be humble lights, too, that show to those who see it the way to the light of the world.

Jesus Christ our Lord. R/ Amen.

Introduction to the Eucharistic Prayer

Today Christ shows himself to us as the light and meaning of our lives and as the star of salvation of all peoples. Let us thank the Father with Jesus and pray that one day all may sit at the table of the Lord.

Invitation to the Lord's Prayer

Jesus came to gather all as children of one Father.
In our Lord's own words

we pray now to our Father in heaven: R/ Our Father...

Deliver Us

Deliver us, Lord, from the fear of letting your Son and his gospel change our hearts and mentality.
Keep us free from sin and give us the peace that comes from integrity and justice.
Help us to be in hope and joy the way that prepares for the coming among all humanity of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. R/ For the kingdom...

Prayer for Peace

Lord Jesus Christ,
let the star of your peace rise today on the body of the Church and on all who believe in you.
In its light, may we learn to love and to serve one another and to share the joy of your peace with all willing to accept it.

now and for ever. R/ Amen.

Invitation to Communion

This is Jesus, the Son of God and the guiding star of our lives.
Happy are we to be called to share his table and to bring his light to all. R/ Lord, I am not worthy...

Prayer after Communion

Lord God, our Father, you have shown us your Son today in the words he spoke to us and in the bread of life by which he shared himself with us.
Let his light shine in us and let our hope and joy reflect this light, that our communities and all of us may show forth his goodness and peace for all to see.
We ask this through the light of our lives,

Jesus Christ our Lord. R/ Amen.

Blessing

We have celebrated together that Jesus Christ came not only for Christians, but to be known by every person,
every country, every culture on earth.
For he is the Savior of all.
May we come to know him better and then make him known to others, especially by the way we live.

And may almighty God bless you,
the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. R/ Amen.

Go in peace of Christ and walk in his light. R/ Thanks be to God.