Introduction by the Celebrant

A. A King Unlike Any Other

Kings stand for power, riches, splendor. On today's feast of Christ the King what kind of king is shown us? A man wearing a crown of thorns, in a purple mantle to mock him as a fake king, and standing as an accused criminal before Pilate who represents the world's power. Where is true power to be found? It is in the truth of the power of God's love to which Jesus came to testify by going all the way of serving love. God loves us totally in his Son Jesus. This is why Jesus is our Lord and King.

B. A King on the Throne of the Cross

Jesus hung on the cross, dying. Next to him there was one of the two criminals also dying with Jesus. One of the strangest dialogues ever took place here. The bandit, struck by Jesus' serenity, said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." And Jesus answered, "Today you will be with me in paradise." A condemned man dying on a cross for a seemingly lost cause promises a kingdom and a paradise of happiness! This states strongly what kind of king we celebrate today: Christ, the king not of power but of truth and love and peace.

Penitential Act

A. A King Unlike Any Other

How much have we followed Christ our king
in his attitude of service, love and truth?
Let us examine ourselves before the Lord.

(PAUSE)

Lord Jesus, king of our hearts,
you were born one of us
in the poverty of a crib in a stable:
Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.

Jesus Christ, king of the people,
you came to be the servant of all,
especially the sick, the weak and sinners:
Christ, have mercy. R/ Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, king of the universe,
your love went so far and deep
as to make you lay down your life for all:
Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.

Bring us your healing forgiveness, Lord,
and make us share in your kingship
by helping us grow in your truth,
your love and your spirit of service.
Lead us to everlasting life. R/ Amen.

B. A King on the Throne of the Cross

We have not made visible enough
the kingdom of God's love.
Let us ask forgiveness from our Lord.

(PAUSE)

Lord Jesus, yours is the kingdom
of totally committed love.
All praise to you!
Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.

Jesus Christ, yours is the kingdom
of justice for even the least.
All praise to you!
Christ, have mercy. R/ Christ, have mercy.

Lord Jesus, yours is the kingdom
of the straightforward, reliable truth.
All praise to you!
Lord, have mercy. R/ Lord, have mercy.

Lord, in your great mercy
forgive us all our sins.
Live and reign in us and lead us

to the joy of everlasting life. R/ Amen.

Opening Prayer

Let us pray that we may reign with Jesus
by serving with him

(PAUSE)

God our Father,
when you wanted to show us
that you are the master of all
and the Lord of all people,
you sent us Jesus your Son
as the humble servant of your love,
who offered his life on the cross for all.
Give us enough faith to learn from him
that to serve is to reign,
and that to give our life to our brothers and sisters
is to find a joy and a happiness
that no one can take away from us.
We ask you this in the name of Christ,
our King and Lord for ever and ever. R/ Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading Introduction: Son of Man and Eternal King

In the vision of Daniel, a "son of man" will bring people together in his kingdom. This "son of man" will be no one else than Jesus.

We are called to share in Christ's victory over death and evil and to lead all people and the whole world to worship God.

Gospel Introduction: My Kingdom Is Not of This World

Jesus acknowledges before Pilate that he is king. But his kingdom is not based on violence. It is the kingdom of those who freely accept the truth and the life of Christ.

Prayer over the Gifts

Lord God, our Father,
you have put into our hands
a piece of bread, a little wine,
but also the growth of your kingdom
and the future of the world.
Make this growth and this future certain

Like him and with him
commit us totally to you and to people,
in generous love and dedicated service.
We ask this in the name of Jesus the Lord. R/ Amen.
